

TRIO-PITTSBURGH CHAPTER NEWSLETTER

JULY 2010

Hello TRIO-Pittsburgh members. I hope this July newsletter finds all of you in good health and spirit. And just think back to February if you are tired of the hot, humid weather we have been experiencing.

I trust everyone had a great July 4th holiday and that you are enjoying your summer. We should have a column on “What I Did During my Summer Vacation.”

This month’s meeting will be held on July 18 from 1:30 – 3:30 at Allegheny General Hospital’s Snyder Auditorium. The speaker will be Brenda Black from the Department of Dermatology at AGH. Her topic will be “Fun in the Sun: Practical tips for the Transplant Patient.”

In closing:

In June, my wife, Chris, and I travelled to Denver, Colorado to celebrate our nephew’s high school graduation. We pitched in with my four sisters and two brothers and rented a house in the mountains of a small town called Silverthorn. The house was located on a private road winding up a mountain. At the bottom of the road was a horse ranch. Every day we would see horses as well as a herd of elk, which liked to graze on the slopes. There was no extra charge for the elk. It was beautiful! One morning we woke up to an inch of snow and this was in June. By 10:00 A.M. the snow was melted away. On the morning before the celebration I woke up feeling inspired and wrote a poem to my nephew, Josh. I had taken a beautiful picture of the road that our house sat on and was able to place the poem over the picture. I addressed it to Josh and signed it Uncle Paul. I later renamed it and signed it. Now, I do not write poems, as you will clearly see, but I thought that you might like to read this. Please open the Word Document, “The Road That Lies Ahead”.
